7.	Creation / constitution of the electoral colleges	In case of Societies with more than 300 members, these are required to carve out a scheme of creation of Electoral Colleges in its byelaws and election of members of the Collegiums. Provisions contained in Rule 16 read with the illustrations in appendix 2 may be referred for the purpose clarity.
8.	Elections of the Collegium / Governing Body	Keeping in view that membership and elections of Societies constitute a major part of the problems in smooth management of the affairs of a society, it is advisable that the procedure with regards to the elections of the Collegium and the Governing Body are clearly defined in the byelaws of the society subject to the provisions of the act and the rules framed there under.
9.	Terms of Governing Body	The tenure of the Governing Body of a Society shall not be more than three years. The byelaws of the society should also contain a provision for filling up of vacancy of any of the office-bearer or members of the Governing body, caused due to any reason whatsoever, during its tenure or till the election of new Governing Body.
